The Water Colour Nude

10th – 13th

December 2009

Four FOCUSED days of Tuition, Practice and working with a small group of likeminded to explore the intricacies of utilising the medium of Water Colour to represent that most Basic element of art – The Human Form.

This carefully crafted package offers the highest standards of Tuition, Content, Models, facilities accommodation & attention to detail resulting from the Hundreds of hours experience we have gained in delivering a range of specialist Figurative Art Events.

Figurative Art revolves around the understanding and depiction of the human form and since 2004 we have been recognised as delivering the highest standard of Models, Tutors, Courses and Residential events in this demanding, but most basic elemental aspect of Art.

Our models are skilled professionals, delivering challenging and vibrant poses carefully designed to illustrate the points and techniques of the individual course modules, - in this case the subtleties involved and surrounding the “mine Field” of Water Colour.

Our lead model – Rosemarie - renowned as one of the UK’s leading Art models, will strive to deliver “inspirational”, relevant and challenging poses throughout all the sessions of the event.

Hosted in amidst the calming Mid Wales forests at the Lake Vyrnwy Hotel offering that “Country House” feel, along with fabulous food from the restaurants that is augmented by the free flowing tea, and coffee to accompany the biscuits and cakes provided to fortify you during the welcome breaks from the Studio work.

This combined with the care & attention we devote to you ensure that you are rested & readied for a highly effective, productive, varied but enjoyable Figurative Art Experience!

To enable our artists to concentrate solely upon their chosen specialisation of figurative art, modelled me uk undertakes the extensive research to ensure that the mix of venue, catering, studio space, models, tutor and the overall ambience is “Just Right” – leaving you, the artist, to watch, learn, sketch, practice, perfect and participate in this intriguing element of Figurative Art.

The number of Artists is strictly limited to ensure that all will have a clear line of site to the models and room to move around to gain alternative views of the models. It also guarantees that Patrick is able to effectively guide and mentor each and every artist in the main tutored sessions.

The ART we present, the FOOD we offer, the ACCOMMODATION & FACILITIES we provide, the CARE and ATTENTION we focus on YOU all ensure the QUALITY we deliver to each Artist!

To find out more about this special and specialist FIGURATIVE ART EVENT which is offered on a Full Board Basis, including Easel, Tutor and Model fees, contact us by email or telephone – or visit our web site <http://www.modelled.me.uk>

Each Residential Figurative Art event we deliver is a carefully crafted combination of the highest standards from the individual elements of the Course, Content, Venue, Models, and the Tutor.

For the Water Colour Nude, we are delighted that the main sessions will be lead by the renowned Tutor/Figurative Artist Dr. Patrick Oates who will, apply his usual blend of exuberance, experience, talent and insight to the subject matter of Water Colour in the context of depicting the human form.
